April 2023 Volume 34 #4

Presidents Message:

Hello

I hope everyone has had a chance to visit the North Tonawanda public library to see the awesome display, Thank you Deb Marshal, Ann Barberio, Diane Brodfueher and Dru Lis for a job well done. April meeting will be mostly about quilt show since it is rapidly approaching; there are still a lot of open slots to be filled to make sure we have adequate coverage at all stations. Judging will be prior to our meeting please make sure you mark your calendars, April 1 st at Salam Church with drop off time being 9-9:30 and pick up at 3-3:30. Jayne will be presiding over meeting this month and she does have the April instructions for mystery quilt and also fat quarter draw. I am so encouraged as to the participation this year. I will be looking forward to seeing all of you at the quilt show; it will be fabulous as always. A big Thank you to Cheryl Shoemaker for taking charge and getting us all organized.

Keep on stitching,
Karen

Note from the Vice President:

Unfortunately, our presenter, Novi, slipped and fell on the ice and was unable to attend our meeting. I have reached out to her to reschedule and continue to await a response from her. Hope she is well.

As announced the workshop "Baubles and Beads" by Jan Brauer will be held May 13, 2023, at the North Tonawanda Library from 10-2. This class is a reschedule from an earlier date that snowed out and is already full.

Otherwise, our focus is on the upcoming quilt show. Regular programming will resume in May.

Jayne
