PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Penny McDowell

Hello Quilters

What a great job Sharon and her gals did putting together the picnic. Thanks to everyone who bought in a dish, everything was wonderful. Thank you to all that made place-mats, they well be much appreciated by those who receive Meals On Wheels in Niagara Falls. A Thank You to Maurine, for bringing in the fabric and serger that someone donated to our guild. It was fun auctioning them off and raising $75.00 for Meals On Wheels in Niagara Falls.

Election time is coming. We have Linda B running for president. Is there anyone else who would like to run the meetings and be president? We still need someone for secretary. Any takers?

Registration for membership is coming up also. The form will be in the newsletters. So please bring in your form and check for $25.00 and give it to Vickie by December.

I will have sign-up sheets for the different committees on the table. Remember each committee needs a chair.

Enjoy the fall colors.

Do you hold the key to happiness? Do you know where life is taking you? Nothing short of being a spiritual guide may offer the answer - but you do have an opportunity to let your imagination run wild and participate in the 2017 Quilt Challenge and perhaps embark on a journey outside of your comfort zone.

Kits are available at every meeting for $5 which will be reimbursed at the annual holiday party in December when you arrive with a completed item. Prizes will also be offered as a result of voting by your peers.

So, join us on the journey into "Where is Life Taking You". Complete challenge details are in each kit.
