October 2023 Volume 34 #10

Presidents Message:

Hello,

October is here and we are into fall, pumpkin spice and all. This month we will revisit election and budget and hopefully have another candidate for both positions. Membership slips have been circulated and Liz is hard at work making adjustments to roster and collecting dues, and once again as a reminder please chose committees as it makes it much easier to do lists.

White elephant sale is this month so please gather the items you are interested in selling. We will have tables set up and will start sale at 6:00pm and then during break and after meeting for those who are interested. Just a reminder: The Amherst guild will be having a sale of their stash fabric for $3.00 per pound for those who are interested.

Mystery is done; setting instructions were distributed so you have till December to finish the top. I think

It will be so much fun to see all the finished results and color ways. I hope you all enjoyed it as it was something a little different.

I will see you in October,
Karen

MESSAGE FROM VICE PRESIDENT

Next month we will be holding a "White Elephant Sale" prior to the meeting. Tables will be available for members who wish to sell their items.

Our speaker will be Dr. Arlesa Shephard, Associate Professor, Curator, FTT Historical Costumes and Textile Collection from the Fashion and Textile Technology Program of the SUNY at Buffalo State. She will be presenting a program of "A Chronology of Early Quilting Techniques in the United States".

Judy Phillips will be providing a workshop on "Faces" on October 28,2023 from 9:30-3:30pm at the United Salem Church, 114 Morgan Street, Tonawanda New York. A signup sheet and supply list will be available at the October meeting. Ms. Joanne Rockenbrock will be preparing her now famous chicken salad lunch which will be sold at the nominal fee of $5.00.

Our November meeting will feature our year in review in pictures. Ms. Judy Phillips has been photographing and filming us throughout the year and will share our highlights from the fashion show, show and share, some of the workshops and of course the quilt show. Come see us starring in "Quilters on Review".

Sheryl Lynch will be providing a workshop on "Quilted Sweatshirt" on 11/18/23. Signup sheet will be available at the October meeting. Location TBA. Sheryl will bring a sample of the project to the October meeting.

Thanks

Jayne

Minutes from the September 6, 2023 meeting

Meeting called to order at 6:33 p.m. by Karen McMurdo

Officers present: President – Karen McMurdo

Vice President – Jayne Crummet

Treasurer – Joanne Sentman

Secretary – Donna Clark

Guests: Chris Estes, Gertie Nordblum, Sharon Witul, Linda Hunter and Kim Scott

Program - Jayne introduced guest speaker, Linda Hunter, who presented "Helpful Hints for Award Winning Quilts." She talked about general appearance, design, construction and quilting. She read an appropriate quote from Jesse Jackson.

Old Business:

There were no minutes for approval from the August picnic. Treasurer reports were on tables. Show and share and UFO #3 were presented. Happy Birthday was sung, then there was a refreshment break.

New Business:

Mystery Quilt clues for the final setting instructions were given.

Judy Lilac won 8 fat quarters.

50-50 draw was won by Joann Pietrzykowski for $30.50.

Carol Carney and Deb Marshall won ribbons at the Erie County Fair. Congratulations!

2024 proposed budget on tables for perusal. No concerns or questions at this point. People felt amounts were adequate. We will review again next month.

Presentation of nominees for officers : Secretary – Donna Clark, President – Deb Marshall. No nominations from the floor. Possible nominees have another month to volunteer.

Committee news:

Challenge – "Tear it up to Build it Up", can't be bigger than 20 inches total, $5 to participate, plenty available.

Walker/Wheelchair – 2 nursing homes called looking for more bags, Meals on Wheels loved placemats, and please have space between pockets at a maximum 3".

Membership – envelopes for 2024 dues of $25 due by 12/10. Forms for committees need to be filed out also.

Sunshine – Carol Kalinowski had knee replacement

Pink Ribbon- table has everything available

Linus – 18 items tonight, grand total 6,645

Christmas party – meeting being held after our meeting

Christmas stockings – about 214 stockings collected. Due in October.

Quilt Show – a good job was done on social media, but more work is needed on posters. No one knows who the administrator of the Facebook account is, so a new account will need to be started.

Please give Cheryl names and addresses of places to display posters for the next quilt show.

Vice President - Jayne thanked Linda Hunter. The October meeting will have a presentation by Dr. Shephard, curator of historical costumes and textiles and professor at SUC at Buffalo. A white elephant sale will be held before the meeting. Gather materials – label and initial.

Workshops : October 21st by Judy Phillips on "Faces". Look for floral and novelty fabrics (fat quarter sized). We will be cutting and gluing. Will need scissors not less than 6". Location to be announced.

November 18th by Sheryl Lynch on quilted sweatshirt. She'll bring a sample next month. Location to be announced.

The November meeting will feature a montage of photos from this year's events presented by Judy Phillips.

Patchwork Gardens will be closing by September 30th due to retirement. A thank you note will be written.

Linda Hunter also advertised an upcoming event held by the Amherst Quilters Guild. On October 12th they will hold a fabric sale at the Buffalo Niagara Heritage Museum from 7-9pm. They will be holding their meetings at Faith United Church of Christ at Maple and Hopkins.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna Clark

Hi fellow quilters

We have so many left that we are planning a “Crumb Square” Linus Day in the Fall. We are asking for useable size scraps:
 Pieces--- 2 ½” inches or larger
 Strips—1 ½” or wider

Our thanks to the August own stashers:
 Doris Gierke and unfortunately the names of the other 3 were not recorded—
 But we are very grateful for your continued support.

Please note: Kristen McGraw is very allergic to “cats” ---if you have a cat, she is asking to please wash (with unscented soap) the quilt before donating. If you are not able to wash the quilt—please place it into a zippered plastic bag—marked “CAT”- a volunteer will handle and wash the quilt. If you have questions/concerns contact Kristen:

kristenwnypl@gmail.com

With very grateful hearts

Co-Chairs: Cindy Hubacher, Cindy Warthling and Linda Szmanda

Chopped Italian Sub

Ingredients:

8oz. deli sliced ham

8oz. deli sliced turkey

8oz. deli salami

8oz. pkg. sliced pepperoni

8oz. deli provolone cheese

1 red onion
3-4 tomatoes
Banana peppers (to your taste)
½ can to 1 can black olives (optional)
1 head of lettuce or bag of shredded lettuce
Mayonnaise
Olive oil
Balsamic vinegar

You will chop, chop, chop the ham, turkey, salami, pepperoni, provolone, red onion, tomatoes, peppers, olives mix together in a bowl.
Add half the bag of shredded lettuce, or half the head of lettuce (which you chopped)
Lightly drizzle olive oil and balsamic vinegar and mix.
Add a tablespoon of mayo at a time—just enough to mix and hold it together.
Serve on sub rolls.
I found this is messy—I serve it on top of a bed of shredded lettuce
