September 2023 Volume 34 #9

Presidents Message:

Hello,

School will be starting soon and fall will be in the air before we know it. This month will be your last mystery block instructions, which are your setting instructions, so you will be able to assemble the project and bring it in for show and share in December. I cannot wait to see what everyone has done. There will be so much variety it will be great to see.

In September your 3rd UFO is due so make sure to bring that to the meeting for a chance to enter the draw at the end of the year.

I hope everyone had a good time at the picnic, I want to thank the committee once again for a job well done, and there is always so much good food.

Christmas stockings are on my mind at the moment so please don't forget about our service men and women as it will come quickly and Sue will be collecting and distributing to our contact group. We are such a charitable group and I just know it warms the hearts of all who receive our items.

Here is my plug for elections, we are in need of a President as I have served the maximum term, so if you are at all interested please reach out to the search committee being Liz and Jayne or myself as we need to present to membership soon. We will vote in November; on election of officers and the budget for 2024, so it would be good if the candidates could be involved in the process. If you ease into the position there is not much to it. I want to encourage you all that it is the process. If you ease into the position there is not much to it. I want to encourage you all that it is very doable and not as hard as you may think so please consider running.

very doable and not as hard as you may think so please consider running.
With that said I will see you all

Hi fellow quilters

We have so many left that we are planning a “Crumb Square” Linus

Day in the Fall. We are asking for useable size scraps:

Pieces--- 2 ½” inches or larger

Strips—1 ½” or wider

Our thanks to the August own stashes:

Doris Gierke and unfortunately the names of the other 3 were not recorded—

But we are very grateful for your continued support.

Please note: Kristen McGraw is very allergic to “cats” ---if you have a cat, she is asking to please wash (with unscented soap) the quilt before donating. If you are not able to wash the quilt—please place it into a zippered plastic bag—marked “CAT”- a volunteer will handle and wash the quilt. If you have questions/concerns contact Kristen:

kristenwnypl@gmail.com

With very grateful hearts

Chopped Italian Sub

Ingredients:

8oz. deli sliced ham

8oz. deli sliced turkey

8oz. deli salami

8oz. pkg. sliced pepperoni

8oz. deli provolone cheese

1 red onion

3-4 tomatoes

Banana peppers (to your taste)

½ can to 1 can black olives (optional)

1 head of lettuce or bag of shredded lettuce

Mayonnaise

Olive oil

Balsamic vinegar

You will chop, chop, chop the ham, turkey, salami, pepperoni, provolone, red onion, tomatoes, peppers, olives mix together in a bowl.

Add half the bag of shredded lettuce, or half the head of lettuce (which you chopped)
Lightly drizzle olive oil and balsamic vinegar and mix.
Add a tablespoon of mayo at a time—just enough to mix and hold it together.
Serve on sub rolls.
I found this is messy—I serve it on top of a bed of shredded lettuce

Pink Ribbon

Welcome back after what I hope was a wonderful and restful summer. There has been a few deliveries over the past several months and it is time to let you know where all your efforts are making a difference. When we deliver to the facilities, the nurses' faces light up and are so grateful that we can provide these pillows to comfort the patients. The following is an update for the year. You will notice the “Other” category. These are pillows that we give to members/friends/family who have someone that has been diagnosed and asked for a pillow. We gladly give them with our best wishes for a speedy recovery.
